

Choose the Right Book

Pick a book your child can read with some support. If it feels too hard, read it aloud together.

Reread for Fluency

Read a sentence or page again.
Aim for smoother, more expressive reading.

Before Read: Get Curious

Look at the title, cover, and pictures.
Talk about what your child already knows.

Keep It Positive

Praise effort, not perfection.
Confidence grows when reading feels safe.

During Reading: Don't Rush

Pause and give your child time to think.
Prompt them to look at the letters and sounds.

Know When to Stop

Short and successful is better than long and stressful. End by reading aloud if needed.

Talk About the Story Idea

Ask what happened, what they learned,
and what new words mean.

A Simple Routine

Look. Read. Reread. Talk. Celebrate.
Small moments build strong readers.

READING AT HOME

Simple Science of Reading tips to build confidence, connection,
and a love of reading.